

Angela M. Beckford, FSA, BSc.

Angela Beckford is the Chief Actuary at the Financial Services Commission where she has the responsibility for the evaluation and process of all actuarial matters concerning regulated entities.

Mrs. Beckford is an Actuary by profession and has previously served the insurance industry for 11 years. She has also worked with Coke & Associates/Eckler Partners an actuarial consulting firm.

Mrs. Beckford holds a BSc. in computer science and actuarial science from the University of Toronto. She is married and has two children and enjoys running marathons and dancing.