

PROFILE

Anthony Manders, CGA, is currently the Financial Secretary within the Ministry of Finance of the Bermuda Government. He had been the Assistant Financial Secretary (Economics and Finance) in the Ministry of Finance Headquarters since March 2004. Previously he was one of two Assistant Accountant Generals in the Accountant General's department of The Bermuda Government. He has over thirty years experience in the accounting and finance field in both the private and public sectors and currently has oversight of the Public Pension Funds of the Bermuda Government.

Anthony graduated from The Berkeley Institute and attended the Bermuda College. Anthony then enrolled in The Certified General Accountant's program and received his accounting designation in 1994.

He serves on various Government Boards and is an active member of the Bermuda Community.

Anthony is a keen sportsman and has represented Bermuda in both cricket and football. He is married with three sons.