

Jana Steele is Partner and head of Goodmans' Pensions, Benefits and Compensation Law Group. She advises on pension and benefits matters in corporate transactions, insolvencies and corporate restructurings and establishment and ongoing administration of pension plans including plan structure, governance, administration, compliance, trustee obligations, surplus matters, plan conversions, mergers, transfers and wind-ups. Clients include universities, non-profit entities, multi-national corporations and multi employer pension plans.

Jana is Chair of the Pensions and Benefits Executive for the Ontario Bar Association, member of the FSCO Legal Advisory Committee, Association of Canadian Pension Management and International Pensions and Employee Benefits Lawyers Association. Jana is recognized as an "up and coming" lawyer for pensions and benefits by Chambers Global The World's Leading Lawyers.